ROBERT H. CASTELLINI

Chief Executive Officer

On November 2, 2005, the Cincinnati Reds announced the intention of their owners to sell a controlling interest in the club to a group of Cincinnatians led by Robert H. Castellini, chairman and chief executive officer of Castellini Company.

Other members of the purchasing group included Thomas L. Williams and W. Joseph Williams Jr., president and chairman, respectively, of Cincinnati-based North American Properties.

The sale was completed on January 19, 2006, when Mr. Castellini took over control of the club as its chief executive officer.

Mr. Castellini has been involved in Major League Baseball for almost 30 years. His involvement included a minor ownership stake in the Reds as part of the Williams family interest until that interest was sold in 1984. He became a partner in the Texas Rangers in 1989 and the Baltimore Orioles in 1993. Most recently Mr. Castellini was an investor in the St. Louis Cardinals, and those interests were sold as a condition of his acquisition of the Reds.

Mr. Castellini has been the chairman of Castellini Group of Companies since 1992, following tenures as executive vice president from 1967-'70 and president from 1970-'92. The Castellini businesses include perishable distribution, food processing, public warehousing, transportation logistics and leasing.

He graduated from Georgetown University with a degree in economics and in 1967 received his MBA from Wharton Graduate School.

Mr. Castellini is very active in the Cincinnati community. He currently serves as a member of the board of directors for Xavier University as well as chairman of Xavier's development committee, board member of the Cincinnati Center City Development Committee (3CDC), Cincinnati Business Committee member and co-chairman of the Economic Development Task Force, member of the Cincinnati Arts & Technology Center steering committee, member of the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center board of trustees and a member of the Commercial and Commonwealth Clubs of Cincinnati. He also is a member of the Chief Executives Organization, Young Presidents' Organization/World Presidents' Organization, the Bohemian Club and the Knights of Malta.

Mr. Castellini has been a member of the boards of directors for PNC Bank, Ohio, and United States Playing Card Company and chairman of the boards of trustees for TriHealth, Inc. and The Good Samaritan Hospital. He is a member of the Presidential Republican Inaugural Committee of the President and Vice President of the United States, Comair Airlines board of directors, Babson College board of trustees, Denison University board of trustees and was the president of the board for the Cincinnati Zoo and the Queen City Club.

Mr. Castellini has also been very involved with the Produce Marketing Association as a member of the board of directors and was president and chairman of that group's executive committee.

JOHN L. ALLEN

Chief Operating Officer

The 2006 season marks John Allen's 17th season in professional baseball and his 12th with the Cincinnati Reds. Mr. Allen originally joined the organization in May 1995 as controller. In June 1996, he was named "interim" managing executive and was named managing executive two months later. On Oct. 1, 1999, he was named chief operating officer.

Mr. Allen is responsible for all business and ballpark operations of the organization, reporting directly to Bob Castellini, the Reds' chief executive officer.

John began his baseball career in 1990 as an intern with the Columbus Clippers, the Class AAA minor league affiliate of the New York Yankees while earning a master's degree in sport management at The Ohio State University. He was subsequently named the club's director of business operations, a position he held for five years.

John was involved in all aspects of the development and construction of Great American Ball Park. This includes the sales tax issue in the fall of 1995, lease negotiations, Issue 11 for the location of the ballpark and countless hours of design and construction meetings.

Under Mr. Allen's tutelage, special efforts have been made to recognize the organization's rich history. Replicas of the retired jerseys of Fred Hutchinson and Johnny Bench were displayed for the first time in a special ceremony on Sept. 1, 1996. Since then, the organization has retired the jerseys of Joe Morgan, Frank Robinson, Ted Kluszewski, Tony Perez, and Sparky Anderson. Statues of popular Crosley Era players are integral to the Crosley Terrace entrance as further dedication to the team's history. Those efforts culminated in September 2004 when the Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame and Museum opened its doors with memorabilia dating back to the team's origin in 1869.

John was born and raised in Norton, Kan. He attended Kansas State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree. John currently serves on the Finance Advisory Board at KSU and is a member of the KSU Foundation Presidents Club.

Mr. Allen has been honored with the Certificate of Friendship from the Cincinnati Human Relations Commission and the Community Service Award from the Talbert House. Cincinnati Magazine also has honored him in its annual "Best of Cincinnati" issue.

He is a life member of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans organizations. He serves on the board of directors of the Cincinnati Reds Community Fund, The Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame and Museum, MLB Enterprises, Inc. and is on the Kid Glove Committee. He also serves on the advisory board for the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce.

John and his wife, Anna, reside in Newport, Ky. John has two children, Christopher and Sarah.

WAYNE A. KRIVSKY

General Manager

Wayne Krivsky was named Cincinnati Reds general manager on Feb. 8, 2006. He is in his first season in the organization and in his 30th season in a Major League Baseball front office. Krivsky signed a 2-year contract through the 2007 season with two 1-year mutual options.

He has spent the last 27 years in baseball administration, including the last 25 as assistant or special assistant to general managers for the Texas Rangers and Minnesota Twins. Krivsky brings to the organization 27 years of scouting and player evaluation experience at all levels of development. Since 1985 his duties have included extensive professional scouting.

In addition to his scouting experience, since 1981 Krivsky has been involved in the contract negotiations of Major League players and the preparation and resolution of salary arbitration cases. He has a 25-year working knowledge of Major League Baseball's rules and provisions of the Basic Agreement.

Krivsky began his baseball career in January 1977 in the ticket department of the Rangers. He joined the baseball operations department two years later as assistant director of player development and scouting.

In October 1980 Krivksy was promoted to assistant general manager and worked in that capacity for the Rangers until he was hired by the Twins in December 1994 as special assistant to general manager Terry Ryan. He was promoted to assistant general manager for the Twins on Nov. 30, 1998 and spent more than eight years in that position before he was hired in February 2006 by new Reds chief executive officer Bob Castellini.

While with the Twins Krivsky assisted Ryan in negotiating contracts for Major League players, including salary arbitration cases and multi-year deals. He helped negotiate multi-year contracts for Twins stars Torii Hunter, Joe Mays, Corey Koskie, Jacque Jones and Shannon Stewart. Krivsky also worked on Brad Radke's first multi-year deal.

Retired Uniform Numbers

1 Fred Hutchinson

Born: Aug. 12, 1919 Birthplace: Seattle, WA Died: Nov. 12, 1964 Number Retired: 1965

Fred Hutchinson was a popular and successful manager of the Cincinnati Reds. Hutch's 466 managerial victories and .543 winning percentage rank him among the best managers ever to wear a Cincinnati uniform. The Reds exceeded the 90-win mark in three of his six seasons at the helm, and in 1961 they took the National League pennant.

But the joy of a first-place finish was matched only three years later by the sadness of Hutch's illness and early death. The courage, class and determination that Fred exemplified all his life were all the more evident during his battle with cancer. Hutch stepped down as Reds manager in 1964, and he died that November.

The following year, Hutch's No. 1 became the first uniform jersey number in Cincinnati Reds history to be retired.

Today, Fred Hutchinson's legacy lives on in the world-renowned Cancer Research Center that bears his name, and in The Hutch Award. It is given annually to a Major League ballplayer who "best exemplifies the character and fighting spirit of the late Fred Hutchinson...who overcomes any form of adversity." Past winners include Ray Knight, Ron Oester, Eric Davis, Bobby Tolan, Johnny Bench and Sean Casey.

5 Johnny Bench

Born: Dec. 7, 1947 Birthplace: Oklahoma City, OK Number Retired: Aug. 11, 1984

Cincinnati's uniform No. 5 belongs to perhaps the greatest catcher to ever play in the Major Leagues. The standard by which all other catchers are measured, Johnny Bench ended his 17-year storied career in 1983 after earning two MVP Awards, 10 Gold Gloves and 14 trips to the All-Star Game. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989.

Bench began his career with a bang, earning Rookie-of-the-Year honors in 1968. Able to control a game on both sides of the plate, he ended his career with a .267 average and 389 homers (327 as a catcher, which at the time stood as a record for NL catchers).

On the Reds' all-time batting list, Bench ranks first in homers and RBI (1,376), second in extra-base hits (794) and total bases (3,644), fourth in runs scored (1,091) and doubles (381) and fifth in hits (2,048).

Johnny appeared in 22 National League Championship Series games and 23 World Series games. Bench earned World Series MVP honors in 1976 when the Reds swept the NY Yankees. He twice led the league in home runs (in 1970 with 45 and in 1972 with 40) and three times led the NL in RBI (1970 with 148, 1972 with 125, and 1974 with 129).

He was named the NL's Most Valuable Player in 1975, when he guided the Reds to a World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox. Morgan batted .327 with 67 stolen bases that season. He turned the trick again in 1976, when he received National League MVP honors as the Reds roared to their second straight World Series Championship with a four-game sweep of the New York Yankees. Morgan batted .320 in 1975, with 60 stolen bases.

Morgan is the Reds all-time stolen base leader (406), and his 266 home runs as a second baseman rank third in baseball history behind Jeff Kent and Ryne Sandberg. He finished his 22-year professional career with 268 homers, 1,133 RBI and 689 stolen bases for the Astros, Reds, Giants, Phillies and Athletics.

Morgan's uniform No. 8 was officially retired in a pregame ceremony June 6, 1998.

Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame And Museum

The Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame and Museum, located just west of Great American Ball Park along the riverfront, opened to the public September 25, 2004. The facility features more than 16,000 square feet of exhibit space on two floors honoring the history of baseball's first professional team.

With artifacts and memorabilia dating all the way back to the legendary 1869 Cincinnati Red Stockings, the Hall of Fame and Museum provides a complete account of Reds history.

In addition to the artifacts on display, the Hall of Fame and Museum features a number of interactive exhibits (from throwing off a regulation mound to making a call in the radio booth), which give fans an inside look at America's Pastime. Exhibits such as the Kids Clubhouse welcome Reds fans of all ages.

Memberships to the Hall of Fame and Museum include a variety of benefits, such as invitations to special events in the Hall and ticket vouchers to Reds home games. Membership prices, museum hours, ticket prices and other information can be found at the Reds Official website or by calling (513) 765-7576. For media members seeking more information, contact the museum at (513) 765-7923.

2006 Reds Hall of Fame Class Includes Browning, May, Seaver

Pitchers Tom Browning and Tom Seaver and first baseman Lee May are the 2006 inductees in the Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame. Browning and Seaver were elected by the fans in voting held in December 2005. May was selected by the local Baseball Writers' Association of America veterans committee.

The trio will be inducted into the Reds Hall of Fame in pre-game ceremonies on Sunday, July 16.

Their bronze plaques will hang in the Hall of Fame gallery in the Reds Hall of Fame and Museum, which opened adjacent to Great American Ball Park in 2004. Their induction increases the membership in the Hall of Fame to 66 players, 3 managers and 2 executives. It is the largest and oldest continually operating team Hall of Fame in baseball.

Browning played for the Reds from 1984-94 and went 123-88 with a 3.92 ERA and 31 complete games in 300 appearances, including 298 starts. He is the fourth-winningest lefthander in Reds history since 1900. His 123 victories rank 12th on the club's all-time list. In 1985, Browning won 20 games in his first full season and finished second in the National League Rookie of the Year Award voting. In a 1-0 victory against the Los Angeles Dodgers on September 16, 1988 he threw the only perfect game in Reds history.

Seaver is the 15th member of the Reds Hall of Fame who also is enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame Cooperstown. In 158 starts for Cincinnati from 1977-82 he went 75-46 with a 3.18 ERA and 42 complete games. His .620 winning percentage remains the seventh-best in franchise history. Seaver was an All-Star for the Reds in 1978 and 1981 and finished second in the 1981 Cy Young Award voting. In 23 starts during that strike-shortened '81 season, Seaver led the National League in both victories (14-2) and winning percentage (.875) while posting a 2.54 ERA and 6 complete games. He was pitching for the Reds when he threw his only career no-hitter, a 4-0 victory vs the St. Louis Cardinals on June 16, 1978 at Riverfront Stadium.

May spent the first 7 of his 18 Major League seasons with the Reds, and from 1965-71 he hit .274 with 147 HR and 449 RBI. His 147 career homers still ranks 14th on the club's all-time list, and he led the club in home runs 3 times. May produced his best season as a Red in 1971, when as Cincinnati's Most Valuable Player he led the club with 39 HR and 98 RBI. In the 1970 World Series against the Baltimore Orioles he established a Fall Classic record for a 5-game series with 8 RBI. He was involved in one of the most famous trades in Reds history, when on November 29, 1971 he was traded to the Houston Astros along with Tommy Helms and Jimmy Stewart in exchange for Ed Armbrister, Jack Billingham, Cesar Geronimo, Denis Menke and Joe Morgan.

During the month of December, fans voted for up to 3 candidates from a 14-player ballot that included Jeff Brantley, Browning, Norm Charlton, Rob Dibble, Dan Driessen, Tom Hume, Ray Knight, Hal Morris, Ron Oester, Paul O'Neill, Joe Oliver, Dave Parker, Chris Sabo and Seaver. The top 2 vote getters were elected for enshrinement. A total of 4,283 ballots were cast with a total of 11,523 votes. Voting was limited to 1 ballot per person.

Ballots were available online at reds.com, in the Cincinnati Enquirer and at the Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame and Museum, the Reds Team Shop by Majestic at Great American Ball Park and the Majestic Dugout Shop at the Westin Hotel downtown. The Enquirer was a sponsor of the 2006 voting.

Modern players eligible for the fan ballot must have played for the Reds for at least 3 years and must have retired between the years of 1985 and 2002.

The Cincinnati chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America prepared the ballot from a candidate pool of 80 eligible players. Ballot rules require that a player be retired for 3 seasons before consideration. A veterans committee, consisting of members of the local chapter of the BBWAA, considers for induction players or managers who retired prior to 1985, and front office personnel.

From 1958-88, fans chose the inductees in paper balloting. There were no elections from 1989-97. From 1998-2004, voting was conducted exclusively by the local chapter of the BBWAA. Beginning in 2005, the BBWAA produced the ballot but fans voted for the inductees.

Reds' Ballparks Through The Years

Union Grounds (1869-70)

Union Grounds served as the first home of baseball's original professional team. The park was located near the area now occupied by the Museum Center in the Union Terminal train station. Anchored by a grandstand called "Grand Duchess," the park could seat up to 4,000 fans.

Avenue Grounds (1876-79)

The Reds headed two miles north from Union Grounds to erect Avenue Grounds, which featured a grandstand that could seat up to 3,000 fans. The ballpark was approximately four miles from the heart of the city's population, so horse-drawn streetcars and trains were a popular way to travel to the park.

Bank Street Grounds (1880-83)

The Reds moved closer to the city with the opening of Bank Street Grounds prior to the 1880 season. The ballpark was located on the north side of Bank Street, south of Western Avenue and just west of McLean Avenue, and could seat up to 4,000 fans. Innovative scoreboard features included players' names and out-of-town scores.

League Park (1884-1901)

Originally called American Park (in reference to Cincinnati's membership in the American Association), the park was renamed League Park (in reference to the National League) in 1890. The park featured a covered grandstand with leather-cushioned seats and open seats along the first- and third-base sides.

Palace of the Fans (1902-11)

Following a major fire, the Reds rebuilt the main grandstand of League Park in 1902. Today, baseball historians refer to the updated facility as Palace of the Fans. The park featured an illustrious grandstand with pillars and columns carved by hand, as well as 19 fashion boxes (much like opera boxes) and inexpensive field-level seating.

Crosley Field (1912-70)

Originally named Redland Field and renamed in 1934, Crosley Field was the first Reds ballpark to feature a double-decked grandstand. The facility, located at the corner of Western Avenue and Findlay Street, was the site of baseball's first night game and hosted Cincinnati's first World Series Championship team.

Riverfront Stadium (1970-2002)

The Cincinnati Reds shared Riverfront Stadium with the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals until 1999. The multipurpose stadium, which could seat approximately 56,000 fans, was considered state-of-the-art upon its opening in June 1970. The facility hosted five pennant winners and three World Series Championship teams.

Great American Ball Park (2003-present)

The Reds' new home kicked off the 2003 season with one of the most anticipated debuts in team history. The ballpark, with room for more than 42,000 fans, includes a variety of seating and dining options, a state-of-the-art sound and scoreboard system and an array of historical elements.

September 16, 1988: One Perfect Night

On September 16, 1988, lefthander Tom Browning tossed the only perfect game in Cincinnati Reds history when he retired all 27 batters faced in a 1-0 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

It was only the 14th perfect game (9.0 innings or more) in Major League history, just the third in modern National League history and the first no-hitter by a Reds pitcher since Tom Seaver blanked the Cardinals, 4-0, on June 16, 1978.

Browning's perfect game capped off an incredible season in which he posted an 18-5 record, including a 16-2 mark after June 6.

commissioner of baseball, former Federal Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, who was hired to clean up America's growing favorite pastime.

The supposed involvement of certain players was something of a mystery in its own right. Weaver, who had known about the conspiracy from the beginning, refused to take part and batted .324 in the Series. He was banned for not exposing his teammates.

Jackson, who admitted taking $5,000, batted .375 with a homer and six RBI.

But, there were those who were as guilty as sin.

Risberg committed four errors and batted .080, but did not receive a cent. Gandil - the organizer of the scam - on the other hand, walked away with $30,000 and immediately announced his retirement. Cicotte lost two of his three starts and earned a $10,000 payday. He later told the jury it was not worth the effort.

Major League Baseball Rules of Interest

Calculating the "Magic Number": Determine the number of games to be played by the team in the lead. Add one to that number. Subtract from that figure the number of games ahead in the loss column from the closest opponent.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply earned runs by nine, then divide total by innings pitched.

Determining Batting Average: Divide total hits by total at-bats.

Determine Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total number of at-bats.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Divide hits + walks + hit-by-pitch, by at-bats + walks + hit-by-pitch + sac flies.

Determining Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

The Winning Pitcher: The starting pitcher will be credited with the win only if the pitcher has pitched at least five complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. EXCEPTION: The "must-pitch-five-complete-innings" rule in respect to the starting pitcher shall be in effect for all games of six or more innings. In a five-inning game, credit the starting pitcher with a game won only if he has pitched at least four complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. When the starting pitcher does not meet the preceding criteria and more than one relief pitcher is used, the victory shall be awarded on the following basis:
(1) When, during the tenure of the starting pitcher, the winning team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game, credit the victory to the relief pitcher judged by the official scorer to have been the most effective.
(2) Whenever the score is tied, the game becomes a new contest insofar as the winning and losing pitcher is concerned.
(3) Once the opposing team assumes the lead, all pitchers who have pitched up to that point are excluded from being credited with the victory except the current pitcher.
(4) The winning relief pitcher shall be the one who is the pitcher of record when his team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game. EXCEPTION: Do not credit a victory to a relief pitcher who is ineffective in a brief appearance, when a succeeding relief pitcher pitches effectively in helping his team maintain the lead. In such cases, credit the succeeding relief pitcher with the victory.

Earning a Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all of the following conditions;
(1) He is the pitcher that finished the game won by his team.
(2) He is not the winning pitcher.
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
b. He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run either already on base or is one of the first two batters he faces), or
c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive game hitting streak shall not be terminated if the player's plate appearance(s) results in a base on balls, hit batter, defensive interference or sac bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sac fly and no hit. Consecutive game hitting streaks do not carry over from season to season.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from the game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirement of this rule, the streak shall continue.

Suspended Games: All performance in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

Rain Delays: Pursuant to Rule 3.10(a), the manager of the home team shall be the sole judge as to whether a game shall be started because of unsuitable weather conditions or the unfit condition of the playing field, except for the second game of a doubleheader. Pursuant to Rule 3.10(c), the umpire in chief shall be the sole judge as to whether and when a game shall be suspended and as to whether and when play will be resumed. An umpire shall not call a game until at least 30 minutes after he has suspended play. He may continue the suspension as long as he believes there is any chance to resume play.

National League Curfew: There is no curfew in the National League. The game is in the hands of the umpires once it has started.

Major League Year: 172 days of service time constitutes a full year in the Major Leagues.

Rookie Status at the Major League Level: To be considered a rookie, a player must not have more than 130 at-bats, or 50 innings-pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the Major League 25-player limit (excluding time in the military).

Waiver Regulations: From 30 days after the start of the season, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire. Otherwise, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings at the close of the preceding season. With respect to trades, no waivers are necessary from 5 p.m. (ET) the day after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31. Waivers are necessary from August 1 through the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

Nicknames and Logos

Cincinnati Nicknames Over the Years

The Cincinnati franchise began play in 1869 as the Red Stockings because of, not surprisingly, the color of their game hosiery. The club has undergone a few name changes over the years, first shortening the name to Reds and then for a brief period during the 1950s it was known as the Redlegs.

Opinions vary as to exactly when "Red Stockings" became shortened to just "Reds," but team histories refer to the club as Reds when the National League was founded in 1876. By 1882, the more formal Red Stockings name was no longer in favor. In fact, instead of "Red Stockings," fans of that era might have been more likely to refer to the Cincinnati team as the "Porkopolitans," a reference to the city's (and the club hierarchy's) interest in the meat-packing industry.

During the 1950s, the era of Joseph McCarthy and the Red scare, the term "Red" was seen in a very different light. Thus, during the seasons of 1953-58, the Cincinnati ballclub was called the Redlegs, so as not to give any appearance of an affiliation with Communism.

GREAT AMERICAN BALL PARK®

On July 7, 2000 Great American Insurance Company, one of the oldest insurance companies in the United States, and the Cincinnati Reds, America's first professional baseball team, joined forces when the two organizations announced a 30-year agreement under which the new home of the Reds would be called Great American Ball Park. Great American, founded in 1872, is the lead member of the Great American Insurance Group and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of American Financial Group, Inc. (NYSE: AFG).

Reds in the Community

The Cincinnati Reds recognize the value of our off-the-field activity in the Greater Cincinnati community. Whether it be visiting children at the hospital, donating tickets for a Reds game or supporting awareness for social and health organizations, we are proud to be an active force for our fans. Programs include our Special Reds complimentary ticket program and Make-A-Wish Foundation visits while also partnering with Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Cincinnati, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Cincinnati and The Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County.

In addition to the club's efforts, the Reds Community Fund (RCF) serves as the official nonprofit organization of the Cincinnati Reds. The RCF is dedicated to improving the lives of youth by leveraging the tradition of the Cincinnati Reds and the game of baseball. The fund strives to create programming that connects at-risk children with baseball, while creating fundraising programs that connect baseball with the community. For additional information, visit our web site at www.redscommunityfund.com or call (513) 765-7231.

In June 2006, the Fund's jewel outreach program, the Reds Rookie Success League (RRSL), returns for its fourth season with more than 500 participants. The RRSL is a noncompetitive, coed, character-building summer baseball league targeting at-risk 8- to 11-year-olds. Reds Hall of Famer George Foster continues to serve as commissioner, with help from close to 100 volunteers, mentors and current Reds players.

The second annual Marty Brennaman Golf Classic will be Sept. 10-11 at the Links at Grand Victoria Resort and Casino in Rising Sun, Indiana. Last year's inaugural tournament raised more than $35,000 for the RCF and RSSL. Foursomes are $2,500. Another of RCF's signature annual fundraisers is the Redlegs Run for Home. This family-oriented 5K run/walk takes place Sunday, June 4, beginning outside Great American Ball Park and concluding inside the ballpark near home plate. Since the first event in 2002, more than 7,500 participants have generated over $150,000 in proceeds.

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Edgar Martinez, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr. and John Smoltz.

Historical Elements at Great American Ball Park

"Spirit of Baseball" Relief

Adorning the west end of the Reds administration building is the "Spirit of Baseball," a limestone relief that stands 50' tall and 20' wide. The relief depicts the romance of the game with the Cincinnati riverfront as a background and four characters in the forefront. Three of the characters – a catcher, a batter and a fielder – are in the clouds, and a child dressed in a uniform with a bat is on the ground. The actual look of the relief varies, as sunlight and artificial lighting allow shadows to alter the look of the sculpture throughout the day.

1869 Team Mosaic

As fans enter the main gates of Great American Ball Park, they're greeted by two team mosaics. One mosaic depicts the original nine of the Cincinnati Red Stockings, baseball's first team of professionals. The mosaic, which is comprised of Italian marble tiles, includes historic Cincinnati as a background and players in their traditional uniforms.

Big Red Machine Team Mosaic

A second mosaic depicts the 1975 World Champion Cincinnati Reds team. With downtown Cincinnati, Riverfront Stadium and the Roebling Bridge as a backdrop, the mosaic features the "Great Eight" of the Big Red Machine – Ken Griffey, Tony Perez, Johnny Bench, Joe Morgan, Pete Rose, Cesar Geronimo, Dave Concepcion and George Foster.

Famous-Dates Banners

A series of banners featuring memorable dates in Reds history align the ballpark along Second Street. Each banner features the name, date and description of each event, including Oct. 9, 1919 (the Reds' first World Series Championship), Sept. 11, 1985 (Pete Rose's record-breaking hit), Sept. 22, 1996 (Barry Larkin becoming baseball's first 30-30 shortstop), and June 20, 2004 (Ken Griffey Jr.'s 500th home run). A separate set of banners, located in Crosley Terrace, depicts the memorable moments from the Crosley Field era (1934-'69).

Crosley-Era Banners

In addition to the banners lining Second Street, a second set of banners is located within Crosley Terrace and pays tribute to the memorable moments that took place in Crosley Field. Those six banners feature events such as baseball's first night game (May 24, 1935), Johnny Vander Meer's consecutive no-hitters (June 11 and 15, 1938) and the Reds World Series victory over the Tigers (Oct. 8, 1940).

Scoreboard Mural

The back of Great American Ball Park's scoreboard, which is viewable from the U.S. Bank Arena plaza level and other parts of eastern downtown, contains a massive photograph of a weathered bat and ball. The equipment has a historic value, though. It was used by Hit King Pete Rose to club hit No. 4,192 that broke Ty Cobb's longstanding record in 1985.

Retired Numbers

On the façade located under the press box in Great American Ball Park are all the retired Reds uniform numbers. The seven Reds who have had their numbers retired are #1 Fred Hutchinson, #5 Johnny Bench, #8 Joe Morgan, #10 Sparky Anderson, #18 Ted Kluszewski, #20 Frank Robinson and #24 Tony Perez.

Crosley-Era Clock

The Longines clock at Crosley Field was a unique feature in the Reds former ballpark. That historic element has been brought back to life, thanks to a replica of the clock that adorns the main scoreboard in Great American Ball Park. The current clock is significantly larger than its predecessor.

Concourse Quote Band

Stretching the circumference of the ballpark's concourse is a band of quotes that the team feels best represents the spirit of baseball in Cincinnati. An example is Pete Rose's famous line, "I'd walk through hell in a gasoline suit to play baseball." The quote band is located on the suite level and begins on the ballpark's third-base side.

Scout's Alley

A special concession and lounge area entitled Scout's Alley is one of the most unique sections of Great American Ball Park. The approximately 1,000 fans located in the Scout and lower-Club seating sections during game days can access this private area, which has a "baseball scout" motif. Historic photographs, as well as displays of the "five tools" of prospects, tastefully give this area its charm. Guests can also see an example of a Major League scouting map, pictures of former Reds scouts, actual contracts and scouting reports, and a mock desktop of a Reds scout.

Mock Infield

Nearly two-thirds of fans entering Great American Ball Park will stroll through the 50,000-square-foot Crosley Terrace, one of the highlights of the Reds new-ballpark project and a tribute to Crosley Field, which was the Reds home from 1934-'69. The terrace contains about an acre of concrete, which is landscaped with grass and trees that resemble a playing field. The "infield" contains a pitcher's mound built to Major League Baseball dimensions of the day, and grass in the terrace is sloped at the same incline as the infamous Crosley outfield.

Bronze Statues

The mock infield of Crosley Terrace is brought to life by the inclusion of four bronze statues honoring Reds greats from the Crosley era. The four were chosen in voting by fans, who were asked to select one catcher, one pitcher and two hitters. The Reds received more than 17,000 ballots cast through the Internet and at Cinergy Field. Ted Kluszewski (hitter), Ernie Lombardi (catcher), Joe Nuxhall (pitcher) and Frank Robinson (hitter) received the most votes. The statues, which were sculpted by local artist Thomas Tsuchiya, were phased into the terrace one at a time throughout the season. Kluszewski was unveiled on Opening Day 2003 and was followed by Nuxhall (July 2003), Robinson (September 2003) and Lombardi (June 2004).

Dining Options At Great American Ball Park

The Machine Room Grille

Great American Ball Park's brewpub, located in the left-field corner, is a dedication to the Big Red Machine, the Reds teams that dominated baseball in the 1970s. This spacious bar and grille has a blue-collar feel, much like the Reds team of the era. Brick and steel finishes, with an exposed ceiling, set the tone. Additional features of the brewpub include a mini electronic scoreboard, views of the playing field, mock foul poles, outside seats, the zamboni used at Cinergy Field and plenty of Reds memorabilia. Dishes include everything from burgers to pizza to barbeque.

FSN Ohio Club 4192

The lounge, a dedication to Pete Rose's record-breaking hit, is open to all premium-seating customers, including Suite, Scout and Club. These guests can access this exclusive area before, during and after games. In addition to a large sit-down bar, FSN Ohio Club 4192 offers a variety of food and beverage options at chef-style food stations. The lounge boasts over 13,000 square feet of space, and fans can relax in traditional dining seats, bar stools at a centrally located four-sided bar or at drink rails facing the ballpark. Comfortable lounge areas also provide cushioned seating overlooking the ballpark.

The Riverfront Club

Located in the right-field section of the ballpark and overlooking the Ohio River is the Riverfront Club, which offers world-class cuisine from an award-winning chef. Access to this upscale restaurant and bar requires a membership. Premium seat holders enjoy a complimentary membership. Members can enjoy a meal before the game or enjoy full service while watching the game from the Riverfront Club's three terraces or on the televisions located throughout the restaurant. The Riverfront Club is also available for groups of 25 or more through our group sales department. For membership inquiries, call (513) 765-7077.

The Diamond Club

For guests who have purchased Diamond Seats, the exclusive Diamond Lounge, which is located directly behind home plate under the field-level seating, is one of the main perks. This exclusive area features beverage service and a gourmet buffet, as well as a window that looks directly into the tunnel that leads from the Reds clubhouse to the dugout. Guests also receive in-seat food and beverage service as part of their all-inclusive package.

Premium Seating

Diamond Seats

The most exclusive of the premium-seating options at Great American Ball Park are the Diamond Seats, which are located in the first eight rows directly behind home plate. The seats, which cost $215 per game, are wider than other seats in the ballpark (approximately 2 inches), are padded and fully upholstered. Perks for Diamond-Seat holders include access to the private Diamond Lounge, as well as in-seat food and beverage service. The price tag for Diamond Seats is all-inclusive, meaning that all food and beverages are included in the ticket price. Group rates are also available.

Scout Seats

The Scout Seats, priced at $70 per seat, are located directly behind home plate and start with the ninth row. The section earned its name because these are the seats that Major League scouts occupy to evaluate talent. These padded seats, which are about 2 inches wider than other seats in the ballpark, include a host of amenities, including in-seat food and beverage service, access to private concession and restroom areas, as well as access to the exclusive FSN Ohio Club 4192. *Scout seats are sold out for 2006.

Club Seats

Directly above the field-level seats, Club Seats offer great views of the field and of the Ohio River, in-seat specialty food and beverage service, and exclusive access to FSN Ohio Club 4192. Perks that come with these seats, which range from $49-60, include in-seat food and beverage service, so that fans won't miss any of the action.

The Ol' Lefthander

Following the 2004 season, Joe Nuxhall retired after 60 years in the organization, including 38 years in the broadcast booth. He has a personal services contract with the team and is expected to broadcast selected games in 2006. Nuxhall began his broadcasting career with the Reds in 1967 and for 31 seasons from 1974-2004 teamed with Hall of Famer Marty Brennaman on the Reds Radio Network. In December 2003, Nuxhall was nominated for the Ford C. Frick award, given annually by the National Baseball Hall of Fame to a broadcaster "for major contributions to the game of baseball." The Reds Hall of Fame lefthander pitched in the Major Leagues for 16 years (1944, 1952-'66), including all or parts of 15 seasons with the Reds, and went 135-117, 3.90 in 526 apps and 287 starts for Cincinnati, Kansas City and Los Angeles. As a 15-year-old on June 10, 1944 vs StL, he became the youngest player ever to appear in a Major League game, a record that never will be broken. Nuxhall has played in or broadcast games in 58 ballparks, including each of the existing ballparks except for StL's new Busch Stadium, Tor's Skydome, Sea's SAFECO Field and Bal's Camden Yards.
